

Admission Policy of SN Mhuire

School Address: Moynalvey Summerhill Co. Meath A83KD81

Roll number: 18344I

School Patron: Bishop of Meath, Tom Deenihan

1. Introduction

This Admission Policy complies with the requirements of the Education Act 1998, the Education (Admission to Schools) Act 2018 and the Equal Status Act 2000. In drafting this policy, the board of management of the school has consulted with school staff, the school patron and with parents of children attending the school.

The policy was approved by the school patron on 12/08/2020 . It is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy, on request, to any person who requests it.

The relevant dates and timelines for SN Mhuire, Moynalvey's admission process are set out in the school's annual Admission Notice which is published annually on the school's website at least one week before the commencement of the admission process for the school year concerned.

The Annual Admission notice will be communicated to the school community through the Parish Newsletter, the school website.

This policy must be read in conjunction with the annual admission notice for the school year concerned.

The application form for admission is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy on request to any person who requests it.

2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

SN Mhuire, Moynalvey is a Catholic co-educational school with a Catholic Ethos under the patronage of the Bishop of Meath, Tom Deenihan. It is a five teacher school with two Special Education Teachers. The full range of classes are taught.

"Catholic Ethos" in the context of a primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims at promoting:

- a) The full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and
- b) A living relationship with God and with other people; and
- c) A philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and

d) The formation of pupils in the Catholic faith, and which the school provides religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (B) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of SN Mhuire, Moynalvey shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

SN Mhuire, Moynalvey operates within the regulations laid down from time to time by the Department of Education and Science and the school is dependent on the grants, and teacher resources provided by the Department of Education and Science. School policy in all areas must have regard to the resources and funding currently available.

SN Mhuire, Moynalvey follows the curricular programme prescribed by the Department of Education and Science, which may be amended from time to time in accordance with Section 9 and 30 of the Education Act (1998)

With the context and parameters of Department regulations and programme, the rights of the patron as set out in the Education Act (1998) and the funding and resources available SN Mhuire supports the principles of:

- (a) Inclusiveness, particularly with reference to the enrolment of children with a disability or other special educational need.
- (b) Equality of access and participation in the school
- (c) Parental choice in relation to enrolment.
- (d) Respect of diversity of values, beliefs, traditions and languages and way of life in society

Mission Statement

SN Mhuire, Moynalvey is a co-educational Catholic Primary School, committed to the aims and principles of the revised 1999 Primary Schools' Curriculum. We celebrate the uniqueness of each child as expressed in each child's personality, intelligence and potential for development. We aim to nurture each pupil in all dimensions of their life - spiritual, moral, cognitive, emotional, imaginative, aesthetic, social and physical.

We strive to cherish and challenge our students in a safe, secure and attractive learning environment.

As a Christian community we aim to be a warm and welcoming place respectful and accommodating of diversity in race, culture, religion, gender and ability. We aim to promote equality and support pupils with special educational needs.

We are an integral part of the parish of Moynalvey and in partnership with parents and the Church we aim to nurture the Catholic faith through religious education, preparation for the sacraments and through our school ethos.

We are a learning community promoting, modelling and valuing lifelong learning.

Parents are their children's primary educators and we strive to empower and utilise parents to be actively involved in their child's education and the life of our school.

We value our relationship with our local community and actively promote our pupils' and their families' involvement in their community.

We strive to provide a nurturing, positive, holistic learning experience for every pupil and commit our resources to challenging and empowering each other.

3. Admission Statement

SN Mhuire, Moynalvey will not discriminate in its admission of a student to the school on any of the following:
